

Accommodation In Varanasi

Private Rooms

Our private rooms have been beautifully finished and are kept spotlessly clean. Each room includes unique artwork commissioned by travelling artists.

We have options for both private and shared bathrooms which include 24-hour hot water and are kept immaculately clean.

Dorm Beds

Our dorm rooms are spacious with no more than four beds to a room with a shared bathroom.

Group Bookings and Retreats

We can offer groups a range of accommodation options including double rooms, twin beds and dorm beds. You can book the whole property or just one floor to create your own private space. We also have a hall available for booking which is perfect for yoga, talks and other group events.

You can find out more on our Retreats section.

Artists Living Space

We offer a fantastic value artists and musicians residency package to those guests wishing to stay long term in Varanasi. We take care of all your day to day needs, including accommodation, food, cleaning and internet access.

You can find out more in our Artist Residency section.

Conscious Travellers Community

We offer a budget accommodation option for Rs.250/night including two home cooked meals, you can find out more on our Community page.

Karma Community Member

Ganges Nirvana believes strongly in supporting travellers and providing a community for creativity and freedom of expression. If your skills can be used in some of our current projects we'd be happy to cover your accommodation and food costs.

If you would like to contribute to our community you can find out more in our Volunteer section.

Couch Surfing

We are able to provide space on our rooftop to pitch a tent and very simple facilities such as a shower/bathroom to travellers who are in genuine need of cheap space. You will be able to contribute on a donation basis.

You must contact us first by email to discuss your situation with our team to check for availability.
Please do not show up without talking to us first.

Please read our new guest information before arrival.
